TAXI with Luggage

Europe area exclusive to LA MINI MINIERA

World's First Minivan Fiat 600 Multipla Taxi helped Italy to recover from WWII. After WWII, Fiat wanted to make an inexpensive car to hold 4 adults. Designed by Dante Giacosa, the Fiat 600 basically put 4 adults in a tin can, only 10 1/2 feet long, plus one driver and one passenger on the front row. This first Minivan can nearly hold 6 adults.

1970 Chrysler Plymouth Superbird

1970年普利茅斯 超级鸟

Plymouth added a goalpost spoiler to catch wind well above the body, and a shark shaped nose cap to make it perform much better on racing track. It would also lure Richard Petty back to Plymouth after defecting to Ford for a year. In the 2000s, these would fetch among the highest prices of any muscle car at auctions.

PLYMOUTH加裝了擾流板來降低高速行駛時的空氣阻力，大大加速了行車速度，再加上鯊魚鼻的外形，使汽車在比賽場上跑得更快。這款肌肉車在2000年的拍賣會上曾獲取最高拍賣叫價。

Ford Thunderbird was first shown to the public at the Detroit Auto Show on February 20, 1954 and became the love of those who pursuit modern and bold design. It is a classic 2-door sports car, which was recognized as one of the most reliable models in American for about 30 years. Not like the rest of the sports cars under Ford, Thunderbird retained the traditional elegancy and luxurious image for half a century.

Chevrolet's all new Sting Ray for 1963 was hot. It had a glorious new body, broadened in scope with the first Corvette coupe. It had an independent rear suspension and fuel injection and even knock-off wheels.

1965 Corvette Sting Ray Convertible

If the Sting Rays are the best of the Corvettes, quite possibly the 1965 model is the best of the Sting Rays. It is, most assuredly, a memorable Corvette.

With no depressions or trim, the 1965 hood was not interchangeable with the '63 or '64 units. The model range again included a choice of convertible or sleek fastback coupe. Sales reached a record 23,562, including 15,376 convertibles. Corvette continued as Chevy's prestige leader and the inside story was a decidedly plush one in 1965.
